The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

The Multinational Enterprise Club of the Wharton School would be honored to have you address students of the school at a mutually convenient date during the forthcoming fall semester beginning in September. Your presentation would be attended primarily by students pursuing their Masters in Business Administration, with attendance ranging from approximately 50 to 100 individuals depending on the scheduling. You may wish to speak on the role of intelligence in monitoring economic as well as political trends around the world, although you are welcome to speak on a topic of your choice.

Many influential corporate leaders visit the Wharton School throughout the academic year. Last year's speakers included Reginald H. Jones, Chairman of General Electric, and John R. Opel, President of IBM. The present officers of the Multinational Enterprise Club also wish to expose students at the Wharton School to heads of select government agencies in view of the necessity for increased cooperation between the public and private sectors.

The presentations normally start at 4:30 p.m. on Mondays through Thursdays, and last 30 to 45 minutes, followed by a brief question and answer session. Often our guests stay for cocktails or dinner at the Faculty Club with the program generally ending by 8:30 p.m. We would be delighted if you would also attend this reception, as it provides an excellent opportunity for informal dialogue. A second alternative is a presentation at 10:30 a.m. on a Tuesday or Thursday, followed by a luncheon if your schedule permits.

I sincerely hope that you will decide to visit the Wharton School this fall, and I look forward to hearing from you. I can be reached at the following address: The World Bank, 1818 H Street N.W., Room D-1302, Washington, D.C. 20433. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Arif R. Sarfraz, President
Multinational Enterprise Club

Dear Mr. Sarfraz:

Admiral Turner has asked me to thank you for your letter of 27 June, and for your kind invitation for him to address the Wharton School during the fall semester. Unfortunately, the Admiral has so many events already scheduled for the foreseeable future that it is impossible to take on any additional commitments.

He appreciates your thinking of him, however.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
